

ALTERNATIVE COMPUTER/TECHNOLOGY SEQUENCE

Theory Brought to Life with Real World Application

The chart below shows the course sequences of computer science and technology at Legend. Students may choose to start studying the course sequence as early as middle school. Exploring Computer Science and Introduction to Java Programming are pre-AP courses. Both AP Computer Science A and AP Computer Science Principles can be studied at grade 9. Completion of the pathway will earn the student an academic track designation on their transcript.

